HIS THOUGHTS OF YOU

Zephaniah 3:17 AMPC

The LORD your God is in your midst, A Warrior who saves. He will rejoice over you with joy; He will be quiet in His love [making no mention of your past sins], He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy.

So many people and even believers can and may have had the impression at some point in their lives that God may or may not be angry with them. The writing in Zephaniah clearly gives a different view & picture. This clearly shows that God is not angry with you. He rejoices over you. God loves you and wants to fellowship with you. That's the main reason He sent Jesus to die for you.

ALL THIS FOR YOU

God rejoices over you, because you He loves with a love that cannot fail and does not end.

Jeremiah 31:3 AMPC
The Lord appeared from of old to me [Israel], saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn you and continued My faithfulness to you. [Deut. 7:8.]

To some the argument might be that the statement was made in the old Testament. Yes true, but the good news is that God does not change.

All of this is an expression of His love towards you. No matter who you are, God loves you so much that he send Jesus to die for you.

For any person that might not understand it, can it be stated as follow: "What would the required action be for God towards mankind, if He did not love the world?" The answer? Nothing. But God clearly showed His love towards mankind by sending Jesus.

Romans 5:8 AMPC

But God shows and clearly proves His [own] love for us by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One) died for us.

GOD OF ALL AGES

Every person is subjected to change. The days change. The climate change. The weather always changes and even people are subjected to change due to aging. The best news however is that God the Father and Jesus do not change.

Malachi 3:6 AMPC

For I am the Lord, I do not change; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

Hebrews 13:8 AMPC

Jesus Christ (the Messiah) is [always] the same, yesterday, today, [yes] and forever (to the ages).

AS YOU ARE

God loves us for who we are. If there is any person that knows you better than yourself it is God.

Jeremiah 1:5 AMPC

Before I formed you in the womb I knew [and] approved of you [as My chosen instrument], and before you were born I separated and set you apart, consecrating you; [and] I appointed you as a prophet to the nations. [Exod. 33:12; Isa. 49:1, 5; Rom. 8:29.]

It is also important to realize that God does not look at our outwards appearance, but he looks at the heart.

1 Samuel 16:7 AMPC

But the Lord said to Samuel, Look not on his appearance or at the height of his stature, for I have rejected him. For the Lord sees not as man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.

Galatians 2:6 AMPC

Moreover, [no new requirements were made] by those who were reputed to be something– though what was their individual position and whether they really were of importance or not makes no difference to me; God is not impressed with the positions that men hold and He is not partial and recognizes no external distinctions–those [I say] who were of repute imposed no new requirements upon me [had nothing to add to my Gospel, and from them I received no new suggestions]. [Deut. 10:17.]

WHY ME

It is so important to know that firstly you are Special to God the Father who loved you from creation and gave Jesus to die for you.

Romans 5:8 AMPC
But God shows and clearly proves His [own] love for us by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One) died for us.

John 3:16 AMPC
For God so greatly loved and dearly prized the world that He [even] gave up His only begotten (unique) Son, so that whoever believes in (trusts in, clings to, relies on) Him shall not perish (come to destruction, be lost) but have eternal (everlasting) life.

The next question may be why did Jesus died for mankind. The answer to that question can be found in

Ezekiel 33:11 AMPC

Say to them, As I live, says the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways, for why will you die, O house of Israel?

Colossians 1:21-23 AMPC

And although you at one time were estranged and alienated from Him and were of hostile attitude of mind in your wicked activities, Yet now has [Christ, the Messiah] reconciled [you to God] in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His [the Father's] presence. [And this He will do] provided that you continue to stay with and in the faith [in Christ], well-grounded and settled and steadfast, not shifting or moving away from the hope [which rests on and is inspired by] the glad tidings (the Gospel), which you heard and which has been preached [as being designed for and offered without restrictions] to every person under heaven, and of which [Gospel] I, Paul, became a minister.

1 Timothy 2:3-4 AMPC

For such [praying] is good and right, and [it is] pleasing and acceptable to God our Savior, Who wishes all men to be saved and [increasingly] to perceive and recognize and discern and know precisely and correctly the [divine] Truth.

2 Peter 3:9 AMPC

The Lord does not delay and is not tardy or slow about what He promises, according to some people's conception of slowness, but He is long-suffering (extraordinarily patient) toward you, not desiring that any should perish, but that all should turn to repentance.

JESUS IS INVITING YOU

Jesus already paid the price for every person. That enables everyone to come to Jesus. Jesus Himself also gave that invite.

Matthew 11:28-30 AMPC

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavyladen and overburdened, and I will cause you to rest. [I will ease and relieve and refresh your souls.] Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me, for I am gentle (meek) and humble (lowly) in heart, and you will find rest (relief and ease and refreshment and recreation and blessed quiet) for your souls. [Jer. 6:16.] For My yoke is wholesome (useful, good–not harsh, hard, sharp, or pressing, but comfortable, gracious, and pleasant), and My burden is light and easy to be borne.

It therefore does not matter where a person might come from or what their background might be. Jesus is giving an invite to all to come to Him. The Lord does not take note of any form of human achievement or failure. It was mentioned earlier, concerning the fact that God does not look at or judge a person's outward appearance, as He looks at the heart.
(1 Samuel 16:7)

Paul also wrote that everyone who calls on Jesus will be saved
Romans 10:13 AMPC
For everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord [invoking Him as Lord] will be saved. [Joel 2:32.]

It can clearly be noted that God does not want any person to be lost. Make a special effort to allow Jesus to change your day and life.

PRAYER

Father God. I come to you in the name of Jesus. I believe with all my heart that you love me and do care for me. I also believe and confess that Jesus died on the cross for me. I also believe that Jesus rose on the 3rd day. Lord Jesus, I come to you and ask you to please come into my life. I ask you to be Lord of my life and my saviour. Please wash me with your precious blood that you shed for me on the cross. I thank you that I do believe, I am now saved. Amen.
